Arvato Supply Chain Solutions opens new site in Alcalá de Henares, Spain

October 7, 2020

Arvato Supply Chain Solutions starts operations in Spain at its new Alcalá de Henares site for the e-commerce business. In addition to the existing warehouses in the region, the location has 10,000 square meters of space that will be entirely used for distribution in the fashion industry.

This new distribution center was designed to handle increasing order volumes in a flexible manner. The characteristic fluctuations in demand in the industry can be handled by a three-shift system seven days a week. The processes at this location meet the highest standards in terms of sustainability and energy efficiency.

In the words of Emilio Juaranz, Managing Director of Arvato Supply Chain Solutions in Spain: "The design of this new site is at the forefront of the e-commerce business in Spain and offers a maximum of flexibility and quality. With this opening, we continue to strive for operational excellence in our processes and also take into account our sustainability strategy with the group's commitment to be climate neutral by 2030".
